We understand that some people like tried and tested themes for their special events and some want something unique that you know your guests have never experienced before.

Whatever your need, we work with quality theming companies who have the expertise and local know-how to design, source and produce memorable events.

Here's an idea to whet your appetite however the possibilities are as endless as your imagination.

THE CONCEPT

For years the locals of Phu Quoc have assembled at Night Markets to socialize and sample the area's finest local cuisine, drinks and entertainment.

Here at the resort we re-create the classic Night Market environment with a luxurious twist at our Beachfront Garden to give our guests both a sense of place and a truly memorable dining experience.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Beachfront Garden is transformed into a Vietnamese food bazaar, with numerous food stalls offering different types of cuisine. Service staff are adorned in the traditional Ba Ba attire, and colorful lanterns fill the night sky providing a warm and vibrant atmosphere. Guests can select their food and beverages from the stalls, or from one of the staff either riding the Vietnamese Xich Lo or carrying traditional yokes and baskets.

THE GASTRONOMY

Upon arrival guests are offered a selection of three locally inspired beverages; Phu Quoc Mojito made from freshly pressed sugarcane, locally brewed beers and Palmrya, a local fruit grown on the island with a similar flavor to coconut. Each food stall is a live cooking station where our chefs present a selection of the finest local and international cuisine, including hand rolled Banh Cuon, whole spit roasted pig, Yakitori style skewers and fresh Pho noodles tossed a la minute. Throughout the evening the bar team mix locally inspired cocktails, including the locally produced Sim Wine, and have the opportunity to try their hand at mixing their own cocktails. Guests are invited to the stalls where our chef slices a fresh coconut in front of them, drains the juice and mixes the coconut flesh in with coconut flavored ice-cream for a sweet finish.

THE ENTERTAINMENT

Adjacent to each cooking of the stalls is a story telling the origin and history of the food and cards on how to re-create at home. Guests can try their hand at making spring rolls or making one of our Phu Quoc inspired cocktails. Traditional music fills the air with performances throughout the evening from local dance groups that always ensures a lively market-feel ambience. The venue has a series of pictures and backdrops sharing the story of the island and guests can have their picture taken in front of one of the iconic images of Phu Quoc. In addition to food stalls there are local vendors selling Long Beach Pearl Necklaces, Phu Quoc Honey and an local engraver offering guests the opportunity to have their own name engraved on a single grain of rice for a lasting memory.

THE CONCEPT

With a coastline that stretches over 3,000km, Vietnamese cuisine is strongly influenced by its geography. Lang Chai, literally meaning Fisherman's Village, gives delegates the opportunity to experience the culture and cuisine of a local village in the beautiful surroundings of our beachfront garden.

THE ENVIRONMENT

Delegates arrive to a tiki lit torch path where they are presented with a Ran Towel (scarf) to wear for the evening and then are handed an oil lantern which the guest is to carry down the path to the Lang Chai and hang on one of the spare bamboo hooks. Overhead festoon lighting brightens the venue while the sounds of traditional music fill the air.

THE GASTRONOMY

Once everyone has gathered, fisherman gather to beat the drums to symbolize the night is about to formally begin. The chefs have designed the menu to showcase the different cuisine and flavors from the North to South of Vietnam. The buffet is set in front of a large backdrop of bamboo lanterns, wooden boards, and fishing nets. The chefs bring the food to life while guests can watch freshly made Vietnamese spring rolls, Phu Quoc Grilled Squid, and grilled pork with papaya mixed with sticky rice prepared at live stations.

THE ENTERTAINMENT

The music begins with traditional Vietnamese strings before a DJ takes over to create a more lively ambiance. Guests are invited by the fisherman to play traditional games which have been passed down for generations. Local fishermen weave casting nets and are there to share their local knowledge and insights to interested guests about each piece of equipment on display and how it is used. Afterwards guests can have a polaroid picture taken with the fishermen inside a Thuyen Thung which is traditional Vietnamese fishing baskets boat.

Date: 23rd January 2019

Attention: The Management of InterContinental Phu Quoc Long Beach Resort

On behalf of my team, I would like to say a BIG THANK YOU to Ms Annie (Mai Anh) Tran who is the event manager during our team meeting in your resort from 14th to 18th January 2019. The services provided by Ms Annie and her banquet team is more than FANTASTIC! World Class Service is the word; which made our stay so pleasant and enjoyable. I was also very touched and overwhelmed by the initiatives Ms Annie and Ms Nghia took to bring me medication and even send lunch to my room when they knew that I am unwell and resting in my room. It was such a personal and kind gesture that I will never forget. There are also many positive feedbacks from my fellow colleagues too, and they even start recommending your resort to their family and friends.

We sincerely thank you for all the warmth hospitality rendered during our stay in your resort. On top of the remarkable services, we would also like to compliment your resort for its impressive guest rooms, dining areas, swimming pools, and having the most beautiful and breath-taking sunset view.

We will keep your prestige resort in mind for any future activities and we will also recommend to our network be it personal or work associates.

Finally, I would also like to thank Ms Donna who worked out a great package for us so that we can hold our event with a big success in your resort.

Thank you so much!

Yours faithfully,

I recently held conference at InterContinental Phu Quoc Long Beach Resort (January 2019).

The InterContinental Phu Quoc Long Beach Resort is an excellent choice for anybody considering hosting their events there. Top-level facilities and excellent staff make for a brilliant environment within which to operate. The hotel takes good care of planning, providing excellent décor, signage and the like.

Moreover, it is the nicest hotel I have ever stayed in, and it was amazingly affordable, too! The ambiance was great, the staff was helpful and there was a great view of the ocean or swimming pool.

Particularly, Annie (Mai Anh) were excellent in her role. She managed both events with the utmost professionalism. Highly competent and skilled, she was a pleasure to work with.

I recommend InterContinental Phu Quoc Long Beach Resort to anybody enquiring.

Yours faithfully,

To Whom it May Concern

It is my pleasure to be able to write this letter to the Intercontinental Phu Quoc Long Beach Resort concerning our recent 2019 G.J. Gardner Homes International Conference.

Our conference had approx. 320 attendees from Australia, New Zealand and USA which all stayed at the resort for the week. In that week the resort helped organise 2 days of conference, 3-night events, team building and various smaller dinners.

The staff through the whole resort from check-in, housekeeping staff, wait staff and higher management were kind and attentive with exceptional customer service, that made our stay extra special.

There are two people I would like to thank who through their beautiful demeanour and professional attitude made the experience personally for me a pleasant one.

I would like to thank Donna Tran Director of Sales who took over my account from David Pearson. This can be a difficult process for some; however Donna was so pleasant and easy to deal with that the transition seemed to progress nicely. Then with the handover to Anni, again a seamless transition but always knowing that Donna was always there if needed.

I would most importantly like to thank Anni Tran who was appointed as my Event Manager, for the outstanding excellent service she provided me, not only during the preparation stages but also during our stay at the Intercontinental. Its always a bit daunting to be in another country with the language and custom differences but Anni made this transition a very pleasant experience. Anni went above and beyond on numerous occasions to ensure that our group remained happy and everything ran smoothly. The prompt replies and being kept in the loop if something was taking a bit longer to sort was much appreciated when running a conference on this scale.

During the process I felt that I was working within a team rather than being just a client. I think this is very important trust wise if you feel that everyone is working towards a common goal and its not just a business arrangement. I felt the Intercontinental were committed to our event which helped make it the successful event that it was.

Sincerely
